Using your personal information:

The personal information that you supply to us, either via an online booking system or on the entry form, may be used in a number of ways. For example:

- To contact you about the event if you have pre-registered
- To provide with a refund if applicable
- To check your horses passport

Once the ride is over, the entry forms will be destroyed securely and the on-line booking system will delete the pre-registered riders information associated with the ride.
